

HARRIMAN GETS 10 BLUES

George Watson Comes Next at Plainfield Horse Show.

SADDLE CLASS WELL FILLED

William McGibbon Heads List, and Reginald Vanderbilt Has Four Firsts.

The blue ribbons were well distributed at the Plainfield Horse Show, which closed last night after a most successful three days' run. J. W. Harriman headed the list of blue ribbon winners, with a record of ten blues and half as many reds to his credit.

George Watson came next, with his Florida Stud Farm entries, with seven firsts, five seconds and seven thirds.

Mrs. C. Cecil Fitter did well with her new entries, and added five blues, two reds and four yellows to her string. Reginald Vanderbilt and William McGibbon each put four firsts and two seconds to his credit, but Mr. McGibbon headed this list for the saddle classes.

The champion saddle class was unusually well filled, for the blues had been so well distributed among the saddles that there were many hopeful owners. William McGibbon's Kildare, Percy Drury's Lady Goliath, Myron A. Oppenheim's Watchful, Mrs. May's Lady Debonair, George Rohrig's Avoca and little Moving Picture were all eligible, and it was evident that each contestant thought he had the best horse.

To the spectators it looked like a close call between Kildare and Avoca, the old international champion. Kildare is a brand new horse, and he had to go to beat the splendid chestnut, but he did scratch the coveted tri-colored rosette and leave only the reserve for Avoca.

The champion saddle classes, large and small, were easy for the Avondale Farm entries. It is a mistake to think that little Lady Dilham has never been fair beaten, and surely there is nothing now in the show ring of her size that can beat her.

Young Alan Harriman drove her to victory in the champion class, and her mate, elegant Dilham, received the reserve, with J. W. Harriman at the reins. Reginald Vanderbilt showed his splendid young hackney mare, Seftield Lillie, and may thought that she would receive the reserve.

Another challenge cup found an owner yesterday. It was the trophy presented by the Plainfield Riding and Driving Club. Little Dilham won a leg on it in 1909, but Paul Sorg's Vanity Fair carried off the honors last year. Mr. Harriman was the only owner who showed in this class yesterday. He drove elegant Dilham, and left the Lady to Alan.

Mr. Harriman has replaced the Dr. Selwyn Challenge Cup, which he won with Alton's Challenge Cup, to be called the Nala, with another trophy, to be called the Nala Challenge Cup, and to be competed for under similar conditions. Mr. Flanagan has also offered one in place of the Thomas W. Lawson Challenge Cup. It is to be called the Prince Charming-Ratapian Challenge Cup.

Class 8 (pairs of harness horses over 15.2 hands; first prize, $50; second, $15); First, Dr. Wm. M. Flanagan's b. m.; Second, Mrs. E. P. Morgan's b. m.; Third, Mrs. E. D.
